

CIVIC VIRTUE

Student Callout Activity

PROJECT OVERVIEW

As you've learned in from the In Pursuit essay and News Hour video, good leaders must have strong civic virtues.

Send us your thoughts in response to the prompt in your lesson for a chance to be published on the News Hour Classroom site!

CREATE YOUR OWN MEDIA

WRITE

WRITE A SHORT RESPONSE (UNDER 100 WORDS)

FILM

FILM A VIDEO (90 SECONDS OR SHORTER)

SHARE WITH PBS

SHARE

WE'LL PUBLISH STUDENT WRITING AND VIDEOS AS PART OF OUR AMERICA 250 COVERAGE.

SEE THE NEXT PAGE FOR GUIDELINES.

CIVIC VIRTUE

Student Callout Activity

PROJECT GUIDELINES

WRITE

WRITE A SHORT RESPONSE (UNDER 100 WORDS)

Your teacher may assign you a longer essay, but we are seeking student submissions of 100 words or fewer.

- Make sure to include real examples in your excerpt about individuals you know and/or your community.
- If you are writing about someone in your life who isn't a public figure, make sure to let them know/get their permission before submitting!

FILM

FILM A VIDEO (90 SECONDS OR SHORTER)

Send in a 90-second (or shorter) video!

- Make sure to include real examples in your video about individuals you know or your community.
- If you are writing about someone in your life who isn't a public figure, make sure to let them know/get their permission before submitting!
- For tips on recording a video diary, see this guide from our colleagues at Student Reporting Labs! Record vertical video! If you are unsure of the difference or want to learn more about vertical vs. horizontal video, click here.